

Appendix F

No.	Document
1.	Preliminary Investigation of Possible Subsurface Contamination; East Station prepared by Hydro-Terra, Inc., 1983 (Phase I)
2.	Contamination & Land Use Study, Phase II; East Station Property, Volumes 1 & II prepared by Hydro-Terra, Inc., June 20, 1989 (Phase II)
3.	East Station - Phase III Study; Ground Water Recovery System; Design & Results of Related Site Investigations, prepared by Geo-Trans, Inc., August 20, 1991
4.	East Station (National Park Service Property) MGP Site Bio-Remediation, Phase II Study, prepared by Institute of Gas Technology, October 1996 (in 2 volumes: report and appendices)
5.	East Station (National Park Service Property) MGP Site Remediation, Phase III Conceptual Design, prepared by Institute of Gas Technology, October 1996
6.	Tar Contamination Mapping and Recovery-Well Siting at East Station, Washington, D.C., prepared by Hydro-Terra, Inc., September 20, 1996
7.	Additional Remedial Investigation and Feasibility Study (Phase IV) East Station, Volume 1 and 2, prepared by Hydro-Terra, Inc., March 25, 1999
8.	Proposed Plan for the East Station Site, prepared by Washington Gas, dated June 1999
9.	Decision Document, dated September 3, 1999, East Station Site, Washington, D.C. by Washington Gas
10.	Letter from US EPA dated September 22, 1999, acceptance of Decision Document, Washington Gas Property, dated September 3, 1999
11.	DC Department of Health Letter dated January 6, 2000, approving ground water remediation plan entitled "District of Columbia Department of Health, Washington Gas, East Station Agreement," dated January 6, 2000, attached
12.	US EPA Region III letter dated January 18, 2000, approving the Remedial Design - Phase I, dated December 27, 1999, attached, and agreeing that it implements requirements of September 3, 1999, Decision Document [Note: Remediation Design was revised February 23, 2000, in a non-substantive fashion to comply with additional DC requests]
13.	Remedial Design - Phase I, Washington Gas Property, 1240 12th Street, SE, Washington, D.C., Revised Final dated February 23, 2000
14.	Land Covenant by Washington Gas Light Company dated as of May 17, 2000, as recorded in the Land Records of the District of Columbia

15.	Report of Well Installation and Plan for Extracting Ground Water on National Park Service—East Property, dated March 13, 2001, by Hydro-Terra, Inc.
16.	Additional Measures Taken to Capture Remaining Shallow Ground water Flowing to the Anacostia River from East Station Study Area, dated January 9, 2003, by Hydro-Terra, Inc.
17.	Three Year Review and Evaluation of Ground-Water Pumping and Treatment and Other Remedial Actions on East Station Site, by Hydro-Terra, Inc., dated July 22, 2003
18.	Five-Year Review of Remedial Actions at East Station Site in Washington, D.C., September 30, 2005, by Hydro-Terra, Inc.
19.	Response to Questions Concerning Three-year Review and Evaluation of Ground-Water Pumping and Treatment and Other Remedial Actions on the East Station Site, July 28, 2006, by Hydro-Terra, Inc.
20.	Additional Analysis of Water Sample from MW-32 letter report, dated August 10, 2006, by Hydro-Terra, Inc.
21.	Second Three-Year Review and Evaluation of Ground Water Pumping and Treatment at the East Station Site, March 2007, by Hydro-Terra, Inc.
22.	Response to DDOE Water Quality Division Comments on Second Three-Year Review and Evaluation of Ground Water Pumping and Treatment at East Station Site, September 11, 2008, by SAIC, Inc.
23.	Draft Five-Year Review of Remedial Action, Washington Gas East Station Site, April 2011, by AECOM Environment.