

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT
LEAD-SAFE AND HEALTHY HOUSING DIVISION | LEAD COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT BRANCH

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

DISTRICT LEAD LAW EXAM & DUST SAMPLING TECHNICIAN EXAM

HISTORY AND HEALTHY EFFECTS

- Identify the common ways lead poisoning occurs
- List the health effects from lead exposure for adults and children
- Identify when lead was banned from residential paint

REGULATION AND ENFORCEMENT

Define “elevated blood lead” level in the District	Define a “person at risk” in the District
Define “presumed lead-based paint” in the District	Define “lead safe work practices” in accordance with the District’s lead law
Identify the places that are subject to the District’s lead law	Define “lead-based paint hazard” in accordance with the District’ lead law
Define the term “renovation” in accordance with the District’s lead law	List the items that certified professionals should have on the job site
Describe how interim controls are handled when a Notice of Violation (“Notice”) and/or Order to Eliminate Lead-Based Paint Hazards (“Order”) is issued from the District of Columbia Department of Energy and Environment (DOEE)	List appropriate methods for conducting lead abatement activities in the District
	Identify who can perform a clearance examination for a property that was issued a Notice or Order
Explain what the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) requires for a worker with a blood lead level above the action level	Describe the requirements for temporary relocation of tenants in the District
List the types of projects that do not require a certified lead abatement worker	State the recordkeeping requirements under the District’s lead law

DUST SAMPLING TECHNICIAN & CERTIFICATION

- Outline the requirements to be certified as a lead-based paint professional in the District
- List the certification fees for each District discipline conducting lead-based paint activities
- List training certificate expirations for each discipline in the District
- List the duties and limitations of a dust sampling technician
- Identify the circumstances under which a dust sample technician initial training is not required
- Explain the circumstances under which a dust sampling technician is permitted to issue a clearance report