

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
Department of Energy and Environment

Lead-Safe and Healthy Housing Division
Lead Compliance & Enforcement Branch

Learning Objectives

District Lead Law and Dust Sampling Technician Exam

History and Health Effects
Identify the common ways lead poisoning occurs
List the health effects from lead exposure for adults and children
Identify when lead was banned from residential paint
Regulation and Enforcement
Define “elevated blood lead” level in the District
Define “presumed lead-based paint” in the District
Define a “person at risk” in the District
Identify the places that are subject to the District lead law
Identify the individuals who conduct lead-based paint activities in the District
Define “lead-based paint hazard” in accordance with the District lead law
Describe how interim controls are handled when a Notice of Violation (“Notice”) and/or Order to Eliminate Lead-Based Paint Hazards (“Order”) is issued from the District Department of Energy and Environment (DOEE)
List appropriate methods for conducting lead abatement activities in the District
Identify who can perform a clearance examination for a property that was issued a Notice or Order
Define the term “renovation” in accordance with the District lead law

Explain, what does the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) require for a worker with a blood lead level above the action level
Describe the requirements for temporary relocation of tenants in the District
Define “lead safe work practices” in accordance with the District lead law
Outline the requirements to be certified as a lead-based paint professional in the District
List the types of projects that don’t require a certified lead abatement worker
State the recordkeeping requirements under the District lead law
List the duties and limitations of a dust sampling technician
List training certificate expirations for each discipline in the District
Identify the circumstances under which a dust sample technician initial training is not required
List the items that certified professionals should have on the job site
Explain the circumstances under which a dust sampling technician is permitted to issue a clearance report
List the certification fees for each District discipline conducting lead-based paint activities