

BECOME A GREEN FELLOW

A GREEN PATHWAY TO LEADERSHIP IN ENERGY & ENVIRONMENT

The Department of Energy and Environment (DOEE) Green Fellows Program is recruiting talented graduate student in the Washington metropolitan area who want to pursue dynamic careers in the fields of energy, environment, and sustainability.

HOW THE PROGRAM WORKS

- A paid fellowship appointment with DOEE for up to 10 months
- Gain valuable experience in public policy and administration in the fields of energy, environment and sustainability
- Receive educational training sessions by agency subject matter experts and participate in collaborative projects
- Work on critical agency projects focused on research and policy, and enhance your project management abilities
- Candidates are connected to a program area which matches their unique skill-set, background, expertise and interests

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be accepted and show proof of enrollment in graduate or post-graduate studies in a higher education institution in the Washington metropolitan area.
- Pursuing studies in public policy administration, urban planning, energy and environment, sustainability or related fields
- Have good academic standing and a GPA of 3.0 or higher
- US Citizen or Legal Non-Citizen Resident Status
- Start mid-November 2020 and complete a 3-day orientation

ABOUT DOEE

DOEE's mission is to improve the quality of life for the residents and natural inhabitants of the nation's capital by protecting and restoring the environment, conserving our natural resources, mitigating pollution, increasing access to clean and renewable energy, and educating the public on ways to secure a sustainable future.

Join our team and be a part of the change you want to see!

NEED MORE INFO? VISIT US ONLINE!
doee.dc.gov/service/green-fellows

For questions or additional information, contact Larissa.etwaroo@dc.gov