

District of Columbia Clean Water Construction-State Revolving Fund (CWC-SRF) Site Summary

Pollution Solutions		Grant Funding Year(s) FY2019/2020
Fort Totten: Residential Dropoff Ramp Structure		Lead Agency DPW
		Project Type Construction
Infrastructure Type Grey Infrastructure	Project Category Pollution Prevention	Address 4900 Bates Road NE	Status Design
Design Start/End April 2021 – November 2021		Construction Start/End March 2022 – September 2022 (estimated)
Objective Improve water quality at the Fort Totten Trash Transfer Station through the construction of a collection ramp, preventing pollutants from residential bulk trash from contaminating stormwater runoff.
Outputs <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Designs and permits</li><li>• Elevated bulk trash residential collection ramp with four bays encased in reinforced concrete</li></ul>
Sewershed MS4	Watershed Anacostia River	Subwatershed Northwest Branch	Ward 5
Outcomes
Trip Capacity	Trash Capacity	Contributing Drainage Area
200,000	15,000 tons	26,000 sq ft

Preconstruction

Construction (to be added)

Completion (to be added)