

UTILITY BILL DISCOUNTS

UTILITY DISCOUNT PROGRAMS (UDP)

The District of Columbia offers programs to help residents pay their gas, water, electric, and telephone utility bills.

Program Descriptions:

Residential Essential Service (RES)

Eligible Washington Gas customers in the District may qualify for a discount on a portion of the natural gas they use during the winter heating season from November to April.

To participate in RES, District residents must use natural gas as the primary heating source. RES eligible customers will receive an approximate 46% discount on the total bill.

Residential Aid Discount (RAD)

Eligible Pepco customers in the District may qualify for the Residential Aid Credit (RAC). This credit provides a discount on Pepco's delivery charges and taxes.

Potential savings of $300-475 annually.

Customer Assistance Program (CAP)

Eligible residential DC Water customers in the District may qualify for a discount of up to 400 cubic feet (4ccf or approx. 3,000 gallons) of water and sewer services used each month.

Eligible households will receive an additional credit of fifty percent (50%) off of the monthly Clean Rivers Impervious Area Charge (CRIAC) bill.

Potential discount could be over $500.00 annually.

Lifeline Services

Economy II Service, also known as "Voice Lifeline" is an assistance program offered by Verizon. It offers discounted at home local telephone service to qualified DC customers. Voice Lifeline Service is available for $3.00 per month to customers under 65 years of age, and $1.00 for seniors 65 years of age and older. To obtain a Lifeline application, visit lifelinesupport.org or call 1-800-234-9473.

Please see back for enrollment process, income eligibility, and documentation requirements.
