

FLY TYING WORKSHOP

Sunday, February 10

12:00-2:00 pm

The Department of Energy & Environment and the National Capital Chapter of Trout Unlimited are hosting a beginner fly tying workshop for ages 12 to adult.

Come to the Aquatic Resources Education Center (AREC) and learn to tie a Wooly Bugger and Foam Beetle to use for spring fishing!

The workshop is FREE but registration is required.

Visit doee.dc.gov/arec for more information or to register.

The AREC is located at 1900 Anacostia Drive, SE at the north end of Anacostia Park, next to the skating pavilion.
